Introduction

Women have always made do with what little they had. This is borne out in the Penny Rug traditions of the early 1800's. From bits of wool scraps and felted wool scraps, they crafted functional items for their homes that reflected their creativity and ingenuity. A penny rug was used as a table mat most often, but translated into other decorative and useful items for the home as well as the sewing basket.

Originally, the mats that were made to protect table tops were covered with stacks of "pennies". The pennies were circular pieces of wool that were cut using the coins of the day as templates. Coins were different sizes than our modern currency.

In particular, the penny was the British penny which is much larger than our current coin. The stacks of graduated size pennies were placed side by side on early mats. Both the edges of the pennies, along with the outer edge of the mat were stitched with a blanket stitch.

As time went by, the designs included appliqué work also. The inspiration for their designs often came from other sources that were familiar to them. This would include folk art of a woman's ethnic community.

Quilt block patterns were the most common source of design elements. Each woman made her wool work to reflect her unique skills and tastes. With it she fashioned useful and functional items that decorated her home.

May you find inspiration in these patterns to bring your own unique brand of style into your home.

Care Instructions: All of the wool felt in our kits is a blend of 20-35% wool. Dry cleaning is recommended for cleaning. To press wool felt, use a steam iron on high.

Using the smaller needle and the red or green thread, randomly attach the sprinkles on top of the cream icing. Be sure to sew through both the icing and cookie layers.

Assembly

Once all cookie tops have been decorated, pin the fronts and the backs together while sandwiching the fillers in between.

Attach fronts and backs of cookies together with a blanket stitch, using the tan floss.

Finishing

Your "no fat, no calorie" cookies are now ready to enjoy. Serve them up on a plate or store them in a glass cookie jar.
